

Village of Granville
PERMISSION TO BOW HUNT ON PRIVATE LAND

I hereby grant permission to the Granville Police Department to assign an individual to bow hunt on my property for the period beginning in September and ending in March. This will be reviewed after each season and the property owner reserves the right to revoke permission at any time. The selected person has passed the screening process from the Granville Police Department and has met the requirements as outlined by the Wildlife Management Program. The property owner authorizes the Granville Police Department to enter onto their property to inspect or to enforce the rules of the management program.
